Fundraising Ideas

A

Afternoon tea
- You could host a 'Vintage Tea for Tay'. A nice way to raise money collectively, a coffee morning lets everyone contribute and raise money.

B

Bake sale
- Get together with friends and set-up a bake sale together. Whether it's at work or a local venue, you can't go wrong with tea and cake!

C

Coffee morning
- you can fundraise in a more relaxed style with friends or family, with a simple coffee morning.

D

Dinner party
- Send an envelope around at the end of the meal and ask everyone to donate what they would have paid in a restaurant for the meal.

E

Eighties evening
- It's all about neon clothes and disco tunes at this party.

F

Five-a-side football tournament
- A great fundraiser as a match between friends, raise funds by charging a player fee.

G

Games night
- Host an evening of games and challenges. Add a bit of extra fundraising into the night by giving penalty fines for being late or talking about work!

H

Hug a pug
- Bring your dog to work for the day and ask for donations in return for a few minutes of play time and photos.

I

International evening
- Host a dinner party inspired by your favorite holiday destination and theme your menu, dress code and music for something different.

J

Jumble sale
- Have a clear out at home and raise money for bucket list services for children with illness.

K

Karaoke
- Always a classic, for friends who don't mind being a bit silly in front of each other it's guaranteed to be fun.

L

Luncheon
- Whether it's a 'ladies that lunch' formal event or something simpler like a potluck lunch party on a Friday lunchtime in the office.

M

Manicure and makeover
- Host a pamper party and swap skills to give each other makeovers and manicures.

N

Netball tournament
- A great fundraiser as a match between friends, or for something bigger, turn it into a tournament.

O

Office party
- There's plenty of ways to incorporate fundraising into an office event, whether it's a bake sale, a dress-down day or a bucket of beans over your boss' head!

P

Pancake party
- Ask everyone to bring a donation and pancake topping of their choice, then treat everyone to as many pancakes as they can eat.

Q

Quiz Night
- For an evening of relaxed entertainment, ask groups for an entry fee, and quiz away!

R

Raffle
- Ask around locally to drum up some donated prizes and sell off your tickets to friends, family and colleagues alike.

S

Skydive
- If you're feeling brave then challenge yourself to a skydive to raise money for our life saving research.

T

Tay Trek or Tay Toddle Waddle
- Participating in one of TMD's sponsored walk events is a fun and healthy way to fundraise for all ages.

U

University challenge
-Take on your local university for the challenge and invite students, friends and family to donate for tickets to the event.

V

Variety show
- A novel way of raising money and discovering talents you never knew your friends, colleagues and neighbours had.

W

Wacky Onesie day
- Whether you're in the office or at school, you can raise money by donating to wear a onesie for a day.

X

X-Factor night
- A singing competition with family & friends. Entry fees to raise money and a prize at the end for the winner.

Y

Yodeling competition
- A singing competition for the seriously brave! If you're looking for something unusual this is it.

Z

Zumbathon
- If you're feeling energetic and want a physical challenge that lots of people can take part in, this is a great way to raise sponsorship together.
